Hello everyone!

We hope you're enjoying this lovely weather!

Do remember to drink water and use sun cream to protect your child's delicate skin.

For our last half term we are reading Mr Wolf's Pancakes by Jan Fearnley. Poor Mr Wolf! He wants to make some pancakes but he struggles with reading a recipe and writing a list and counting up his money to go shopping. He asks his neighbours for help.

They all say "NO"!

How unkind.

So he does it - all by himself.

When the pancakes are ready however the nasty neighbours bang on Mr Wolf's door and say they aren't going home until they eat them!

What will the Wolf do?

Will he share?

Or is he hungry for something else as well as the pancakes?

Watch these videos and find out!

Can your child recognise some of the neighbours from other stories?

What other stories have a wolf in?
